

Jeweler Travels From West Texas To Emmy Awards Red Carpet

And she had something not even Lorraine Schwartz could match.

Lorraine Schwartz, Neil Lane, Fred Leighton: All the big names of celebrity jewelry were represented at the Emmy Awards Monday night. But Susan Eisen of Susan Eisen Fine Jewelry and Watches in El Paso, TX had something none of them did — a seat in the auditorium with a nominee and eventual winner. Eisen attended the ceremonies with “Breaking Bad” supporting actor Aaron Paul, whose wife, Lauren Parsekian, wore Eisen-designed earrings on the red carpet. Also spotted wearing Eisen, Access Hollywood host Shaun Robinson, and Kate Linder of “The Young and the Restless”. All in all, a big night for Eisen, who said after the event: “This is the highest compliment any designer can receive.”

LEFT: Custom, handcrafted earrings from the "Diamond Vines" collection (2.25 total carats), retail price $17,800. RIGHT: Handmade, one-of-a-kind abstract gold and diamond ring, made from rock castings of the "Franklin Mountain", retail price $15,800.

Read More Here: <http://instoremag.com/homepage/shine-times/14489-jeweler-travels-from-west-texas-to-emmy-awards-red-carpet.html>