

Jewelry of the Celebrities:

Arts calendar: Nov. 13 - The Gallery at Susan Eisen Fine Jewelry Art Watches & Appraisals, 5857 N. Mesa St., El Paso, announces the first in a series of celebrity jewelry exhibitions and sale of reproduction jewelry from the collection of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis through Nov. 30. The jewelry represents examples of couture jewelry worn by Onassis while she was the first lady living and afterward. On display will be exquisite reproductions of jewelry worn during her lifetime, including a diamond necklace worn on an official visit to India, a turquoise necklace worn to her daughter's graduation, an art deco diamond and sapphire bracelet worn when she danced at a large gala in New York, and a white and multicolored enamel bracelet she wore for her whole life, a gift from a close friend. Also on exhibit is a floating pearl necklace worn on her honeymoon with JFK in Acapulco as personal guests of the president of Mexico. Photographs of Onassis in her various roles as a fashionable first lady and New York socialite will also be on display in the gallery. Gallery hours: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, and by appointment on Sunday and Monday.
