

RTIR Online

What producers read to find guests.

04/10/14 RTIR E-zine: School Stabbing, Celeb Trainers, Entitlement Epidemic

By Staff on April 10, 2014 in Weekly E-zine Archives

April 10, 2014

16. Who Gets Mom's Jewels? Dad's Classic Car?

It's difficult enough to lose a loved one, but in many families a whole new cascade of stress and loss ensues when family members bicker – or outright fight – over who inherits what. For a fascinating show on keeping peace when it comes to the division of cherished heirlooms, interview Susan Eisen. This master gemologist appraiser has helped countless clients with their collections and memorabilia, from priceless jewels and antiques to everyday objects with sentimental value. You'll learn how to make wise decisions about dividing heirlooms, make sure everyone is satisfied, and make peace when kin are at war. Susan Eisen is the author of several books including "The Myth of the Million-Dollar Dishrag: an Effective and Powerful Plan to Avoid a Family Inheritance Battle After You Die." Contact her at (915) 584-0022 (TX); susaneisen@susaneisen.com

<http://www.rtironline.com/2014/04/10/041014-rtir-e-zine-school-stabbing-celeb-trainers-entitlement-epidemic/>