

iJewelry Style Network!

In This Issue

- Editorial

TREND WATCH

Color Marks Biggest Trend on Emmy Red Carpet

Wondering if your red carpet style is ready for primetime? Take some cues from the 60th annual Emmy Awards held Sept. 21 at the Nokia Theatre in Los Angeles. With the majority of celebrity awards ceremonies crammed in at the beginning of the year, the American Academy of Television Arts and Sciences' annual soiree for primetime actors and their shows brings a much-needed injection of glamour voyeurism at the onset of the fall-winter-holiday seasons. Read More

Jewelry Tips

One thing I learned early on was that jewelry could either be worn and enjoyed or reused and redesigned. There's no other product on the market that has this ability. And, when a challenging economy makes us pull in our purse strings, there's no better time to dust off that jewelry you don't wear anymore and make something new out of it. I had a customer with a pair of very dressy white gold, diamond, sapphire and pearl earrings that we took apart and made into four new pieces - diamond and sapphire stud earrings, pearl earrings, a pearl clasp, and a diamond pinky ring. Redesigning jewelry is creative and exciting for everyone involved. By redesigning an uncomfortable or out-of-style piece, you can bring a new piece to