On Friday, we stopped by StyleLab's Jewelry Suite to check out the...wait for it... $55 Million collection of jewels for celebrities to wear on the red carpet at Sunday night's Emmy Awards.

Clients from this suite included actors from Transparent, Silicon Valley, and Orange is the New Black, to name a few. To give you an example, Suzanne Cryer (Silicon Valley) sparkled in a multi-row bracelet from Christopher Designs. It features over 21 carats of diamonds, set in 18k white gold and priced at $94,162. She was also infatuated with a $1 million necklace from Pure Grown Diamonds, consisting of 76 carats of emerald cut diamonds set in platinum.

Celebrity stylist Michael O'Connor curated a selection from world-renowned brands such as Christopher Designs, DAVANI by A&D Gem, KALLATI, the Leo Diamond by Leo Schachter, Leeza Braun for Leo Schachter, LVE by Scahacter, Mastoloni, Pure Grown Diamonds, Shaftel Diamond Co, Susan Eisen, and Takat.

Since we got there on Friday, two days before the Emmys, most of the jewelry pieces were taken, but my favorite designer was Texan John Ford. He is known for his beautiful Australian opals and his ability to infuse his pieces with a modern twist.

Mr. O'Connor gave us the inside scoop on this years red carpet trends. He stated that inspiration for the pieces comes from the collections at New York Fashion Week and pointed out that, in terms of colors, there will be a lot of pastels, nude, and greens. In jewelry we should expect to see a lot black diamonds and ruby slices.
